

6516206379.txt

I personally think that the FCC should stay away from XM radio all together. We the consumer have the right to listen to what ever channels on XM radio that we wish to hear. Were the ones paying to hear them. If we wanted to listen to what the FCC wanted us to hear we wouldn't be paying to listen to something else. Leave it alone..

Mike Miller